The site welcomed 5,000 members within the first few months of its launch, and continues to grow in membership and reach. Featuring celebrity guest hosts, weekly giveaways, and “behind the scenes” access and personal stories by a different Poppy host each week, BLOOM offers members direct access to a unique community of readers and authors. Engagement on BLOOM is high; it receives thousands of fun, intelligent, and respectful posts and comments throughout each week.

Our group includes college professors, lawyers, doctors, and businesswomen with expertise in a wide array of topics. Whenever a Tall Poppy book is released, it receives the full support of the group via promotions, launch events, and contests. Additionally, we regularly promote the work of other female authors.
- giving Poppies believe in giving back, particularly to organizations that support literacy, public libraries, and other causes. As individuals, the Poppies have contributed over $125,000 to literacy programs and charities in their communities. As a team, TPW supports Room to Read (www.roomtoread.org), a nonprofit organization that seeks to transform the lives of millions of children in low-income countries by focusing on literacy and gender equality in education. Working in collaboration with local communities, partner organizations and governments, Room to Read helps develop literacy skills among primary school children, and supports girls to complete secondary school with the relevant life skills to succeed in school and beyond.
